ABOUT ME

I am a motivated student currently pursuing two degrees one at the University of London which is a BSc in Economics & Management and another at the Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore which is a BBA in Digital Business & Entrepreneurship. Born in Delhi, I have been living in Bahrain since 2012, giving me a multicultural perspective shaped by both South Asian roots and a Middle Eastern upbringing. I thrive in competitive environments and I'm driven by curiosity, precision and a desire to create real-world impact.

My career goal is to build a meaningful career in finance or economics where I can combine my quantitative skills with a passion for problem-solving and entrepreneurial thinking.
